

DEATH & RESURRECTION, Part 2
May 4, 2014
Matthew 27:50-53

Jesus' resurrection won victory over death. (Rom. 6:9)

Jesus' resurrection is the way to the eternal kingdom. (1 Cor. 15:50)

Jesus' resurrection was proof that he was who he claimed to be.
(John 20:28)

Thomas doubted; Thomas knew.
If God can do that, then what can't God do?

Jesus' resurrection is an indispensable part of the faith. (Rom. 10:9)

Jesus' resurrection is powerful enough to include others.
(Matt. 27:52-53)

What did they do? (Acts 1:8)
What happened to them?
What is the significance of this event?

THANK YOU: My sister and I would like to thank First Baptist Church for being my mother's church home in York. Seven years away from active fellowship was a very long time. She valued the "Tidings" newsletter and the cards from "Member Care". She enjoyed when her First Baptist friends paid her a visit. Max and Jean Murphy were so faithful, until they were no longer able. I must especially note the Sunday afternoon visits from John Casner. He visited

Message from God's Word

Song of Preparation:

"How Deep the Father's Love for Us"

(By Stuart Townend. ©1995 Kingsway's ThankYou Music.)

How deep the Father's love for us,
how vast beyond all measure,
that He should give His only son to make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss,
the Father turns His face away,
as wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the man upon a cross,
my sin upon His shoulders;
ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held him there until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has bought me life—
I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything,
no gifts, no pow'r, no wisdom;
but I will boast in Jesus Christ, almost every other week for many, many years. Not only did he come so regularly, but he also interrupted whatever he was doing on a Sunday afternoon to time his visits so that he could greet her after the Lutheran Home church services ended. We would like to thank those who provided the meal to our family and friends after the service on Friday. We would also like to express our deep thanks to Pastor Munson for his service to us as Mother was dying, and for the wonderful memorial service that he lead for her on Friday. Our lives here on Earth are but a blip with respect to eternity. We have the confidence that we will see her again. Janet Shank & Dorlas Riley

As a courtesy, cell phones are to be switched off during worship.

Worship Leader: Cherith Charles

Once the Prelude begins, please refrain from talking so that you and those around you can enter into a worshipful mood before the Lord.

Prelude:

“Because He Lives”

(Gaither, arr. Wolaver)

Call to Worship:

Everyone dies because we all belong to Adam; everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life. Unless a person submits to this original creation—the ‘wind-hovering-over-the-water’ creation, the invisible moving the visible, a baptism into a new life—it’s not possible to enter God’s kingdom. When you look at a baby, it’s just that: a body you can look at and touch. But the person who takes shape within is formed by something you can’t see and touch—the Spirit—and becomes a living spirit.

I Corinthians 15:22 (NLT); John 3:5-6 (The Message)

“The Risen Christ”

(Words: Phil Madiera Music: Keith Getty)

O, Breath of God, come fill this place, revive our hearts, to know your grace;
and from our slumber make us rise,
that we may know the Risen Christ.

O, Words of God, so clear and true,
renew our minds to trust in You;
and give to us the Bread of Life,
that we may know the Risen Christ.

O, Love of God, so unrestrained,
refresh our souls in Jesus’ Name;
let us reflect Your sacrifice
that we may know the Risen Christ.

May God the Father, God the Son,
